

Wise Old Man

Take heed old man, the day begins
With you your time to spend
In ways of wise through reflect
Broken thoughts you can now mend
A lifetime of experience
A worldly view to tale
To give us all a meanings worth
Some wisdom to inhale
Smile old man as you will see
The lessons we all must learn
You let us go with your own eyes
Sharing with taught concern
I smile with you old man this day
For all that passes through
I thank the heavens for your touch
For life and how you grew
As my teacher I have lived
A piece of life with thee
And known a man I can respect
And hope to see in me.

Margi